

14 March 2011

Earthquake occurred in the northeast Pacific coast of Japan
(the second report as of 16:00, 14 March, 2011)

As of 16:00 (Tokyo time) today, INPEX CORPORATION has confirmed following points regarding the earthquake occurred on 11 March, in the northeast Pacific coast and the earthquake occurred on 12 March, in Chuetsu area in Niigata Prefecture.

1. Minor damage was found in our production facility of natural gas dissolved in water project in Chiba region. Repairing is now underway.
2. No other major damage on our domestic business was confirmed, which includes natural gas domestic pipeline network and the other domestic production facilities.

We would like to express our deepest sympathy and condolences to those affected by the recent devastating earthquake in Japan, and our sincere wish for a safe and smooth recovery for all families.

Media Contact: INPEX Tokyo Office, Public Relations Group, Tel) +81-3-5572-0233