INPEX Participates in 2014 Abu Dhabi International Hunting & Equestrian Exhibition

INPEX CORPORATION (INPEX), through its subsidiary Japan Oil Development Co., Ltd. (JODCO), participated in the 12th Abu Dhabi International Hunting & Equestrian Exhibition (ADIHEX) held in Abu Dhabi, UAE from September 10 to 13, 2014.

INPEX has participated in this exhibition since 2004. Through promoting personnel exchanges and cultural understanding, INPEX strives to build trust and enhance its relationship with the people and business community of Abu Dhabi, the capital of the United Arab Emirates.

In connection with this year's exhibition, INPEX organized falconers, a swordsmith and a candy maker to introduce traditional Japanese culture to the people of Abu Dhabi. Exhibitions included Japanese falconry, samurai swords, candy making, and the traditional Japanese tea ceremony etiquette central to Japanese culture. INPEX distributed candy, Japanese cartoon paper fans, Japanese ceremonial tea and cakes to the visitors all of whom enjoyed these traditional Japanese foods and crafts.

H.H. Sheikh Hamdan Bin Zayed Al Nahyan, the Ruler's Representative in the Western Region of the Abu Dhabi Emirate and Chairman of the Emirates Falconers Club that organizes this exhibition, and H.E. Sheikh Nahyan Bin Mubarak Al Nahyan, Minister of Culture, Youth and Community Department, visited the INPEX booth and engaged in conversation with INPEX President & CEO Toshiaki Kitamura.

INPEX strives to maintain and enhance its relationship with Abu Dhabi not only through oil development but also by serving as a bridge facilitating social exchange activities such as technical support and cultural understanding between the UAE and Japan.
